

Clear Lake Mad About Music Concert and Play-In

Thursday, October 10, 2013

5:40 p.m. - Check in and tune
6:00 p.m. - Rehearsal with MAM on De Colores
and Yellow Rose
6:30 p.m. - Potluck dinner
7:30 p.m. - Mad About Music concert and play-in

Lakeside Lutheran Church
1101 S Egret Bay Blvd., League City, TX 77573

Registration Deadline: October 1, 2013
email Hopeviolinstudo@gmail.com to register

Play-In

All pieces will be performed with markings from the new editions of the Suzuki books and at CD tempo. To accommodate our cellists and violists, pieces with an asterisk* will be played one string lower by violin students. Advanced students are invited to play harmony parts.

We will also perform special arrangements of our cultural exchange pieces Yellow Rose of Texas and De Colores.

Book 1:

Twinkle*
Lightly Row*
Go Tell Aunt Rhody*
O Come Little Children*
Minuet 2*

Book 2:

Hunter's Chorus
Bourree*

Book 3:

Gavotte in G minor

Book 4/5:

Vivaldi Concerto in A minor, 1st mvt
Bach Double, 1st mvt

Mad About Music (MAM) is a touring group of about 20 young Suzuki string players who are mad about playing world folk music. The group is part of the University of New Mexico's String Pedagogy Program and is directed by Suzuki teacher-trainer Susan Kempter.

Our concert will include a special performance by MAM and a Suzuki-style play-in.